156 10238 SABRINA JEWETT. Married JOSEPH DUNTON.
156 10244 RUTH ANN JEWETT. Married JAMES F. DUNTON.

157 Line 3 "Episcopal" is misspelled.
157 10230 MOSES CARLTON JEWETT. Born MOSES CARLTON MAHONEY. Buried in the Eastern Cemetery, Western Prom., Portland ME. When his son GEORGE HENRY JEWETT (13348) was three years old, Moses changed his surname, his wife’s surname and the surnames of his then existing children from Mahoney to Jewett. (Changes in Surnames by Special Acts of the Legislature of Maine, 1820-1895, Compiled by Marquis Fayette King, 1901).

Moses was born in Northport, Waldo, ME. He left Northport after the death of his father Patrick Mahoney and found employment in Portland ME. He worked on the docks for a while and then in downtown Portland and advertised in the Portland paper. He was located on Federal Street.

159 10335 JAMES HEAL TARBOX. Delete line 3 "Employment... Woolrich." Replace written text with: James sailed primarily on Houghton Brothers' ships as Chief Officer under Captain David Gilmore of Woolwich who commanded the ships Servia and Samaria. He also sailed in that capacity on the maiden voyage of the ship Francis from Philadelphia to Japan with case oil. He later served for a short period as Chief Officer in the 6-masted schooner Eleanor A. Percy commanded by his brother-in-law Lincoln Webb Jewett. He subsequently managed tide water saw mills on Westport Island ME and the family farm.

When MARY POWELL CHISAM was three months old, she, her brother Norman and their mother crossed the Atlantic on a Cunard ship to join her father, Captain James Chisam, in Liverpool. He commanded a Black Ball Lines' ship chartered to take emigrants to Tasmania. Mary was christened at sea on the outward leg of the voyage. The ship returned to England via Callao, Peru and the Chincha Islands where the ship loaded guano. While her father continued to command British flagships, the family lived in Ilfracombe, Devon and Liverpool where Mary attended a private school. As a teenager her brother was placed in a boarding school while Mary and her parents sailed with a load of coal for Shanghai, China and subsequently spent four years trading along the Chinese coast. Following her mother's death some years later in England, she was a guest of family friends on a voyage to San Francisco where she met and married James who was serving aboard a ship in port. They returned by train to his home in Westport where she was to bear five children in seven years.

ANNE ROBBINS TARBOX. Change line 4 "She retired...Westport" to: She retired in 1934 and spent her winters in White Plains NY and her summers in Westport ME.

Line 28 "automobile" is misspelled.

NANCY TARBOX. "Manila" is misspelled twice.

RONALD LORING TARBOX SR. Buried in Westport ME. Occupation: Marine Engineer. THEA LEONE (HAMLIN) TARBOX buried in Westport ME. Graduation: Hebron Academy 1916; Mt. Holyoke College 1920. Occupation: Teacher/Librarian. Replace written text on Ronald with: While Ronald was at Hebron Academy, he contracted a serious disease that resulted in the loss of sight in one eye. While he lost a good deal of school work while recuperating in his aunt Annie Jewett's home in Portland ME, he was able to catch up and graduate with his class in 1916. He did some postgraduate work at Hebron in preparation for the University of Maine, but he was needed at home to help on the farm and had to give up his plans for college. He subsequently made several trips to South America on United Fruit ships, whose chief engineer was his Uncle Jesse Ames, before being accepted at the Bath Iron Works as a shipfitting apprentice. He returned to the merchant marine following his apprenticeship and became a licensed engineer serving with the American Hawaiian and Dollar Lines. The loss of the eye was to bar his return to shipbuilding when he and Thea established a home in Quincy MA and he gave up his seagoing career. Insurers of shipbuilding concerns declined to accept such disabilities in candidates for employment. He became a maintenance engineer with the Wonder Bread Bakery in Dorchester. With World War II he was commissioned in the United States Maritime Service and returned to sea as a marine engineer, sailing until the early 1950's.

Replace written text on Thea with: Thea taught at Westbrook Seminary (now Westbrook College) from 1920 to 1922 and at Williams Memorial Institute in New London CT from 1922 to 1925. She lived in Quincy MA from 1926 to 1947. With her son away at school and her husband at sea, she became a librarian in Holbrook and later in Braintree MA. She continued to maintain her home in Quincy after her husband's death until 1972 when she retired and moved to Milan NH to be near her sister, Dorris Hamlin. In 1978 both women moved to the Odd Fellows Home in Concord NH where she remained until her final illness.
